DEVON BANK ASSISTS FEDERAL EMPLOYEES

CHICAGO, IL — Devon Bank announced today that it is providing financial solutions to its mortgage customers who have been furloughed or otherwise impacted as a result of the recent federal government shutdown. Devon Bank will be joining Freddie Mac and Fannie Mae in their efforts to assist those customers.

Effective today, through the resolution of the furlough, the bank will offer its mortgage customers up to a 90 day mortgage payment deferment plan to assist them.

Customers may inquire more by contacting Devon Bank at mortgagehelp@devonbank.com or calling (773) 423-2377.

About Devon Bank

Owned and operated by the Loundy family since 1953, Devon Bank is in its third generation of family leadership as an independent, community bank, with David Loundy serving as its Chairman and CEO. The Bank has been serving the Chicagoland area since 1945 and is a full service bank including a full range of retail and business deposit products and services, trust and investment services, and a full range of home and business financing products, including specialized faith-based financing products for the religious needs of its customer base. Devon Bank serves a very diverse customer base with its headquarters in a vibrant North Side community. As of today, the bank's approximately 100 employees speak at least 28 different languages.

The bank now serves four geographic communities in Illinois (Rogers Park, Glenview, Wheeling, and now a Loan Center in Orland Park). In addition, with its faith-based products, it serves communities of interest across the country.

The Bank is also a member of the Community Bankers Association of Illinois and is an accredited member of the Better Business Bureau.
